

A photograph of two dogs, possibly Weimaraners, sitting on a wooden porch. They are both covered in white sheets, with only their faces visible, making them look like ghosts. The porch is decorated with several pumpkins, a green lantern, and a white birdcage. There are some autumn leaves scattered on the steps. The background is a light-colored wooden wall.

THESE HOME
INSULATION TIPS ARE

DOGGONE SPOOKY

DON'T BE FRIGHTENED THIS FALL— SAVE MONEY AND ENERGY!

- Open curtains on south-facing windows when the sun is out
- Caulk or weather strip windows and doors to trap heat
- Turn your water heater down to 120°
- Service your heating system to maximize efficiency

LOOKING FOR MORE WAYS TO LOWER YOUR ENERGY BILL THIS FALL?

Visit our website for more energy saving tips and rebates on energy efficient equipment.

www.danvillehomesave.com | 434.857.3312

